INTRODUCTION

Every Christian would _____ that whatever _____ or _____ they may face in this life, our God is still a _____ and _____ God to all who _____ on Him, because of _____.

I. GOD _____ ORDINARY PEOPLE (Genesis 21:8-13)

II. GOD _____ FOR ORDINARY PEOPLE (Genesis 21:14-21)

CONCLUSION

Reflection Questions:

- How is your personal relationship with God this morning? Is it where it should be according to what the Bible says and not what you think?
- For those of us who are married, think about Abraham’s family dynamic in the portion of Scripture, it was chaotic! A story like this should make us appreciate our spouse. When was it the last time you took time to appreciate your spouse?
- For those of us who are not married, when was it the last time you connected with your family and share how much you appreciate each of them? It could be through a phone call or an email, whatever best you believe can best show your appreciation to your parents, siblings, or relatives today!
- For all of us, when was it the last time you thanked God for the spiritual family you are a part of today?
